

HILLSBORO READS

What does HOME mean to you?

Call for Artists

We want to showcase YOUR designs in the Library!

Share what home means to you through artwork, story, poetry, or another creative medium. Your personal expression of home will be put on display at the library.

The Details

1. Draw, paint, color, write or use another creative medium to express what home means to you, based on the themes in this year's titles, Nomadland and No Fixed Address.
2. Complete the form below, then bring your artwork to the Library by Tuesday, March 15.
3. If you want to pick up your art again later, make sure it is clearly labeled with your full name.
4. Invite family and friends to see the exhibit at the library March 1—March 30.

We are accepting submissions February 15 through March 15. They will be on display at the libraries March 1—March 30.

Please cut out this section and attach it to your art to let us know how you would like to participate:

- Please showcase my work in the Library's Art Gallery.
- I will pick up my artwork between April 3—17 (after the exhibit)

Is your artwork appropriate for all ages? YES NO
